UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)	CASE NO. 18-CR-00465 MMC
Plaintiff,)	JOINT STIPULATION AMENDING
v.)	PROTECTIVE ORDER
)	AND
FUJIAN JINHUA INTEGRATED CIRCUIT)	PROPOSED ORDER
CO., LTD,) Defendant.)

Pursuant to Paragraph 7(b) of the Protective Order (ECF 79) (the “Protective Order”), the United States and defendant Fujian Jinhua Integrated Circuit Co. Ltd. (“Jinhua”) jointly request a temporary modification of the restrictions on transporting materials designated as Confidential Materials to Defense Counsel's offices. The Protective Order allows a Receiving Party to transport Confidential Materials to Hong Kong, Taiwan, Japan, and Singapore. The Receiving Party, however, "may not transmit them electronically to or through any country other than the United States." Protective Order ¶ 7(b). This provision, therefore, requires that Defense Counsel physically transport secured copies of Confidential Materials to their offices in Asia for representatives from Jinhua to review the documents.

The parties have agreed that, to facilitate Jinhua's review of the admitted trial exhibits and to allow the parties to diligently work on the enormous project of reviewing the hundreds of admitted exhibits to determine whether any redactions are needed, a temporary modification of the Protective Order is appropriate to allow Jinhua to review electronic versions of the admitted exhibits.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the undersigned counsel for Jinhua and the United States, that the Protective Order in this case should be temporarily modified such that certain admitted exhibits can be transmitted via Secure FTP to King & Wood Mallesons in China, and reviewed as follows:

- Counsel for Jinhua, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, LLP, will put on its secure FTP all admitted exhibits except the following exhibits:

- The FTP will be “read only”—Jinhua would have no ability to print or download the exhibits.
- The login for the FTP will be provided to lawyers at King & Wood Mallesons, which is also counsel of record in this case.
- Lawyers from King & Wood Mallesons will review the exhibits with Jinhua in a King & Wood Mallesons’ office in mainland China.
- The lawyers and Jinhua may take notes on what to redact in the documents but should not otherwise take notes on the substance of the exhibits.
- Access to the FTP site should expire 45 days after this stipulation is entered by the Court.

For the admitted exhibits listed above, the United States will either (1) provide Jinhua with a redacted copy of each exhibit or (2) state that an entire exhibit should be filed under seal. Jinhua may use and review any redacted exhibit provided by the United States without limitation.

SO STIPULATED AND AGREED.
